

08.06 20 Hello from Mrs. T.!

Morning Orchid!

Hope you all have had a good weekend.

I am in school today, the internet is still down but - fingers crossed - it might get fixed and I can monitor the emails. Be patient with me!

There will be an email to the year 6 (those who are in school tomorrow) which I will send (using a timed send) at 2pm. It will have important information in that you will need for school tomorrow.

Our class read: Where the Wild Is: We never finished it. I am busy recording the final chapters for you to listen to. I will attach an mp3 file daily on your morning email, starting from tomorrow - so watch out for them!

PLEASE READ YOUR EMAIL FOR TODAY (those in school - I will print it out for you). FOLLOW ALL OF YOUR INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY.

Your tasks to complete daily and by the end of the week:

Online tasks: It is important that you complete these fully:

Daily Doodlemaths: (Mon to Fri)

Readtheory: some of you have not been doing these! You need to complete 12 extracts by Friday 3pm.

TTRockstars: Complete 20 games and try to get your accuracy 90% or above. I am not so concerned about speed as I know how fast you all are!

Today's maths

1. Daily Doodlemaths task. DO THIS FIRST.

2. Yr5 revisiting adding and subtracting fractions this week. Yr6: New content - finding the rule (algebra)

Both year groups need to watch the correct video.

Yr5: Add & subtract fractions <https://vimeo.com/418155222>

Yr6: Find a rule <https://vimeo.com/425603587>

Complete the sheet/write the answers in your home learning book.

IF YOU ARE AT HOME, TAKE A PHOTO OF YOUR WORK AND SHARE IT WITH ME.

Today's English (2 tasks)

1. Diary entry

1. Combine all your diary entries into 1 Google Doc. I will call home if you don't. I have asked for over a term!

2. Unshare and reshare your diary entry with me.

3. Write up what kind thing you did in the end (it was an instruction from last week. Please check last Thurs/Fri email you were sent).
4. If you didn't do as you were instructed, you need to plan now what you would like to do that is kind for someone at home. Write what it is and your justification for it.
5. Write up what you did at the weekend! I am expecting Yr5/6 quality, with no blue lines under your words. I would like a good, solid paragraph please. No, 5 short sentences WILL NOT do!

2. El Dorado!

For English this term, we are focussing on writing in order to film! This can be done on a phone, a computer, as a series of pictures in a Photostory sort of thing. If you have any concerns, then let me know. I will find some examples for you to get an idea from so don't worry too much for today.

Instructions for today:

1. Read the English instruction sheet and do what it says, in the correct order.
2. Set up a Google Doc and title it El Dorado and share it with me.
3. Complete your work on the Google Doc.
4. Make sure you have shared it with me!

Year 6: PSHE

Have a look at the file called Go Big. It is the start of your work for transition to secondary school. Pick a task to do today. Send me a photo of your work.

Whole school curriculum task: Art!

Self portraits

Your task is to produce a careful self portrait of your face.

Preparation:

Spend some time on the mirror and notice the smaller details of your face.⁷
Look carefully at the proportions.

The art:

You can use paint, a computer program, collage, pencils or just in grey pencil.
I would like it to be about A4 size.

Take a photo of your art and email it to me to go on the curriculum area of the website.

Here are some ideas:
