Dear Parents,

BRING A PARENT TO BLOG AFTERNOON

At Westwood School, we are constantly using new ideas to improve and enhance our learning. One of the ways in which we have improved our writing, digital literacy and safety, is through blogging.

Each class has their own blog and we also have a number of school blogs and a Head's blog, all accessible through westwoodblogs.org or the school website, westwoodwithiford.org. The children love to share their learning and we have now managed to develop an international as well as a national audience for our learning. We like to think of them as a window into our daily life.

On Thursday 12th and Friday 13th February, we are inviting you to come and find out what it is all about and work with your child during a Bring a Parent to Blog Afternoon. Thistle and Clover class will hold theirs on Thursday 12th February from 1.45pm and Lotus and Orchid classes will hold theirs on Friday 13th February from 1.45pm.

Each session will begin with a short talk from me and an introduction to blogging and what can be achieved and then you will have the opportunity to work with the real experts, your children, helping them to post, leave comments and have fun.

I do hope that someone from your household will be able to spare a short time for this new and exciting event and I look forward to seeing many of you in school for the afternoon.

Kind regards
