Dear Parents and Carers,

World Book Day takes place next Thursday 5th March 2015, and we would like to invite you to join us in helping your child to make the most of this special occasion. World Book Day celebrates the joy and value of books and reading, especially for children.

To help get them started on their reading journey, every child will receive a £1 World Book Day Book Token that can either be exchanged for one of TEN special £1 World Book Day books or used to get £1 off any book costing £2.99 or more. You can find out more about the books at worldbookday.com/books. Please help your child to use it on or around World Book Day by visiting your local bookshop.

Nurseries, schools and libraries across the UK celebrate World Book Day with a huge range of events and activities. This year we are, once again, inviting every child to dress up as their favourite character from a book and to bring in to school the book that they have chosen their character from. We are especially interested in 'home made' costumes! The children will be taking part in a wide range of exciting activities that the teachers have planned for World Book Day and we are all looking forward to an exciting day full of books!

Yours sincerely,

Ian Rockey
